

SEN Teaching Assistant for Gesher School

Gesher is a unique Jewish Independent SEN Primary School that opened its doors in September 2017. Our cohort of children present with a range of Special Educational Needs, including language, communication and social pragmatic difficulties, and those associated with ADHD and specific learning difficulties. We also specialise in Autism Spectrum Challenges (ASC). Our curriculum is therapy based and we have a multi professional team approach to supporting the school. We are a dedicated and passionate team that are working towards providing an Outstanding SEN School.

An exciting opportunity has arisen for an SEN Teaching Assistant to join our team. We are looking for an inspirational team player, who has the ambition and drive to support the school and provide an Outstanding education. Experience with Special Educational Needs would be advantageous. The candidate does not need to be of a Jewish Faith, although a respect the Ethos and Values of the school would be expected.

We are looking for an exceptional candidate who:

- Is a passionate and dedicated Teaching Assistant
- has the ability to work as part of a forward looking strategic team
- has a deep understanding of how children with special educational needs learn
- is secure in their ability to support the class teacher and team
- to support pupils progress and raise attainment
- is a proven, successful team player with excellent motivational and interpersonal skills

In return we can offer:

- to be part of a dynamic and forward thinking team of professionals who are passionate about SEN
- to be part of a new, upcoming and outstanding school that will have links to the University of Cambridge and Professor Simon Baron Cohen
- a supportive, warm and passionate team
- access to Gesher's staff well-being package
