

Parents are advised to always call 119 when seeking a test for their child. Calling at 8pm is recommended so as to access the newly released test slots for the following day.*

Symptoms:
High temperature (37.8 degrees)
New continuous cough
Loss of, or change to, sense of smell or taste